Card From Capt. Turner.

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 4, 1883. To my old Friends and Customers of Hays

I take this opportunity of informing you that I am now associated with the well known house of T. C. Frost, of San Antonio, and would be pleased to send you samples and prices of any and all goods, and feel assured that it would pay you to write to me for samples and prices. My friends can always command me.

Respectfully, P. R. TURNER.

DISTRICT COURT convenes on Monday next. There are 42 cases on the civil and 45 on the criminal docket. Of the former 21 relate to cases of assignment, and 4 are against the sheriff in the matter of the assignments of W. D. Keith and P. R. Turner & Co.

We intended publishing lists of jurors as usual, but Judge Moore for some reason has ruled against such publication prior to the first day of the term.

SAN MARCOS is becoming rather wetin spots. A mule attached to a dray bogged down yesterday at one of the street crossings, where there was a leak from the water works.

No water from the wor's has yet reached the reservoir.

Worthy of Note.

That Hankla, the shoemaker, keeps both haudinade and Eastern goods, but now only for men and boys. By concentrating his efforts in this department he is enabled to offer better inducements than could otherwise be found. Being a practical workman himself also gives him great advantages in selecting the best articles in his line,

Besides that, his goods are very cheap and they are all fresh and nice. He intends to keep a constant supply of fresh vegetables, eggs, immigration by such means. For years we illness. have been very careful to do nothing of the sort. We always make it a point to advise people to come and see for themselves. Some years since we published a description of this county, which was very generally complimented as being unusually fair and truthful. On that account however, it was not acceptable to some. Apropos, we are thinking of issuing a new edition of it soon, brought down to the present time. We have frequent inquiries for something of the sort.
